Dear Sir

In an interesting correspondence with Mr. Wm. H. Smith of Portland (whom I never saw) I learned of you as best shown by the enclosed paper from Mr. Smith.

If you read the "Historical Collections" of the Essex Institute Salem Mass (current number) you have noticed that I am contributing an account of all the early settlers of Rowley including four generations where possible.

This work includes the Prime family and in the 4th generation I have lost two, viz: Mark born 1712/3 had a dau Olive born here 1735/6 then styled "Doctor" with wife Elizabeth. I never heard of him since.

2nd His brother Moses born 1715 never heard of him after.

Now can you give me any light concerning Mark Prime of Saco? whether or not he sprang from the above named or can you tell his age or father etc?

If any of your old families sprang from Rowley and you desire to know of them I shall be pleased to aid you.

Yours very truly

Geo. B. Blodgette.

Hon Edward P. Burnham

Dear Sir

Your kind and valuable letter rec'd. I have just had access to some old papers in possession of our Prime family and from them I learn (written about 1810) that Dr. Mark Prine (who left here about 1737)"settled in Old York" "and his descendants are now living there"

Are you familiar with York town or county records? and to whom should I write to learn concerning the birth of the "Col. Joseph" you mention? doubtless his father was my "Dr Mark." Will you ask the Mark P. "shoe-cutter" of your town whether or not any of his family would know these facts that I may write to them.

The Primes here have always been prominent men. Capt. Prime died 1882 aged 91 his son John S. was our town clerk thirty years ending last year when he declined further service. The firm of D. N. Prime and Sons has been well known for forty years (Capt., John S. & Daniel B.)

With many thanks I am still yours to oblige

Geo. B. Blodgette.
